Workshop „the art of bow making“
with Laurie Tanner

Lauri Tanner is the Head of Bow Making and Restoration at Florian Leonhard Fine Violins in London.

He will be leading a workshop at SIMA 2025 on “The History of Bow Making” and explaining to participants what makes a good bow and what to look out for when choosing a bow.

On this occasion, he will present some master bows to the participants, which can also be tried out.
